

Graduate Student Leadership Institute: Developing the Leader in You: Know, Be, Do

Hosted by : Graduate Student Life & Wellness, Office for International Students & Scholars, & AGEP

Date: Saturday, November
16th

Time: 9am-3pm,
registration begins at 8am

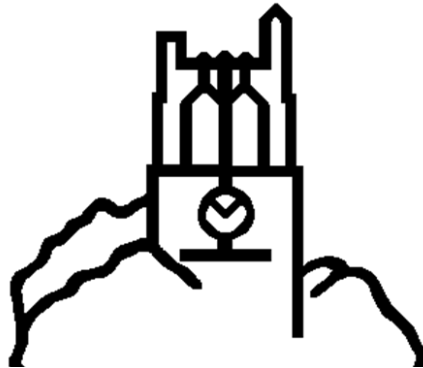

Location: Kellogg Center
Big Ten C

Cost: $10,

Capacity: 120 students

"If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more and become more, you are a leader."

—John Quincy Adams

Do you want to improve your leadership skills?
Do you want to learn from some of the very best and brightest leaders Michigan State University has to offer?

GSLI is an intensive, one-day leadership conference where you will learn what it means to KNOW, BE, DO Leadership from top administrative leaders in higher education, faculty, government, and business.

You will walk away with the following skills:

- How to inspire others to act
- Essential leadership skills such as conflict resolution, holding others accountable, and project management
- The ability to create and follow your own personal leadership action plan
- Information on getting involved in campus and community organizations immediately!

Join the leadership conversation on Twitter:
@leadershipmsu

Morning: Featured Speakers:

Scott Westerman
MSUAA

Dr. Judi Brown
Clarke
BEACON

Dr. Christine
Geith
MSU GLOBAL

Dr. Matt Helm & Amber Cordell:
Assessing your Leadership Potential and Creating your Vision Statement

Afternoon:

*Lunch provided by Kellogg
Catering Services
Networking and Discussion Opportunity*

Four breakout session choices

Closing Remarks and Activity

Register through the MSU Graduate School Website!